If the Commissioners can do it now, they will give notice of another special meeting on Wednesday, December 18, 2024 at 4 pm, at the Community Center. After a public session to call the meeting to order and explain the meeting agenda, the meeting will go into a 30-minute executive session for the Commissioners to discuss their impressions of the applicants. The meeting will then go back into public sessions for the Commissioners to select the new employee, and establish the hourly wage, hours per month and start date.
